

1995 Refectory "Clarence House" rebuilt plus a Design & Technology centre

The refectory was replaced by a modern building, named Clarence House by command of HRH The Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother, who was patron of The Royal.

In addition, a new Design & Technology centre was created. This modern-looking building was built on the Senior School playground at the rear of the school.