

Queen Mother visited the school on 11th June 1969 & opened Clarence House.

Though the weather was not good, reports say the royal patron radiated such warmth and enthusiasm that none of the 446 youngsters needed a cheerleader.

After Her Majesty unveiled the commemorative plaque, the Chair of Governors, Mr F.O. Skidmore, presented her with a brooch made in the shape of the Staffordshire Knot.

