

1901 The clock tower was built

The early drawings indicate that a clocktower was envisaged from the start. Clocktowers were a feature of major Victorian buildings.

However, the tower that was eventually built differs from the early drawings and can be seen on this view of the Royal Orphanage which is taken from a 1920s postcard.

The clock tower as it is today.

